MAN-EATING SHARK OF VARIETY WHICH INFESTS ATLANTIC

This fish, weighing 600 pounds, was caught off the Cuban coast by Godfrey E. Madsen, the cigar importer, and a boating party, which was towed two miles before the shark weakened. This is believed to be one of the species now haunting the Jersey coast.

QUICK NEWS

FOSTER RETIRED FROM U. S. PRESIDENCY

SCRANTON, Pa., July 7.—Thomas J. Foster, founder of International Correspondence Schools, failed of reelection as president of the board of directors met for reorganization today. When the board of directors met for reorganization today, W. W. Wren, ex-president of the Scranton Board of Trade and a business man, was made president. He was appointed vice president when local banks went to the rescue of the schools, some time ago. Mr. Foster is to continue in the capacity of the schools, but chairman of the directors.

VILLA RECRUITING AGENTS AT WORK NEAR PERU

COLUMBUS, N. M., July 7.—Villa agents are recruiting men south of the American expedition's advanced base, according to reports brought here today. The marauder's recruiting agents have been working among the Carrancista troops at Villa Alvarado, other garrisons, encouraging desertion to the bandit's leader. They used the argument that Carrancista is in league with the States.
